

100 COVER STORY 100

62

PATRICIA AHERN

CEO

Hospice Buffalo
c./Center for Hospice & Palliative Care Inc.

1. Ahern oversees affiliates of Hospice Buffalo, which is the 10th-largest Million Dollar Nonprofit with 3 employees and 1,012 volunteers.

63

ANN MONROE

President

Health Foundation for Western and Central
New York

A year-end retirement has been announced for Monroe who has supervised the $120 million foundation for 13 years. She has twice been tapped by Gov. Andrew Cuomo for statewide leadership in Medicaid reform matters and is chairman of the national Grantmakers in Aging, based in Arlington, Va.

64

LESLIE ZEMSKY

Partner

Larkin Development Group

The creative mind behind Larkinville's special events including Food Truck Tuesdays, Zemsky has promoted Buffalo's Larkin District as a place to visit. She is on the board of Visit Buffalo Niagara.

65

SHARON STERN GERSTMAN

Of counsel

Magavern Magavern
Grimm LLP

Gerstman became president-elect June 1 of the 74,000-member New York State Bar Association. She concentrates her practice at Magavern Magavern Grimm in the areas of mediation and arbitration and appellate practice.

66

CLARE HAAR

CEO

Eastern Niagara Health System

She led the charge in April to affiliate with Kaleida Health, aligning the 134-bed hospital in Lockport, outpatient clinics in Newfane and an urgent care and ambulatory care facility in Lockport with the $1.2 billion Kaleida system.

Congratulations, Mindy!
 Mindy is honored as one of the Power 100 Women
 and influential women living in WNY.

ROSWELL PARK CANCER INSTITUTE
 congratulates these
Power 100 Women.
 Thank you for putting your power behind our mission.

Candace S. Johnson
CANDACE S. JOHNSON, PhD
 PRESIDENT & CEO
 ROSWELL PARK CANCER INSTITUTE